4. Amendment to Section 2(b) to include Delayed Authorization POS Payment Items as an item that will not be governed by Rule A6. Approved by the Board November 28, 2019, effective January 27, 2020.

Introduction

1. This Rule outlines the procedures by which a Negotiating Institution may place an Item in Dispute, and the means by which the dispute can be resolved.

Scope

2. The procedure set out in this Rule shall:
 - a. apply to each Member, and any other Drawee; and
 - b. not apply to Shared Electronic Point-of-Service Payment Items (Rule E1), On-line Payment Items (Rule E2), EDI Payment Items (Rule E3), or PIN-less Point-of-Service Payment Items (Rule E4), Delayed Authorization Point-of-Service Payment Items (Rule E5), or electronic Remittances (Rule H6).

Notice

3. A Negotiating Institution that disputes a Returned Item shall give notice in writing to the Drawee Branch within 60 days following receipt of the Returned Item by the Branch that originally received the Item for encashment or deposit. The notice shall state the reason for the dispute.

Item in Suspense

4. The item in Dispute shall not be cleared back to the Drawee Branch but shall be held by the Negotiating Institution pending resolution of the dispute.

Acknowledgement

5. The Drawee Branch shall acknowledge in writing the notice of dispute within ten Business Days following its receipt.

Failure to Resolve

6. Where the dispute cannot be resolved at the Branch level it may be escalated to the appropriate authority within the Negotiating Institution.

Dispute Resolution Panel

7. Where the dispute cannot be resolved at the level referred to in section 6, it may be referred to a dispute resolution panel of representatives from member institutions for a determination of whether the Act, bylaws and rules have been correctly followed. The process outlined in Rule A9 applies as applicable and, the parties shall be bound by the decision of the dispute resolution panel but shall have recourse through Arbitration or the courts.

RULE A6 – ITEMS IN DISPUTE

Arbitration

8. Where the foregoing procedures do not resolve the dispute, after 60 days of the notice of dispute the parties may proceed to Arbitration pursuant to Rule A9.

Interest

9. A claim for loss of interest on float shall be calculated pursuant to Rule J10, except that interest shall be calculated from the date of the notice of dispute.
